

Consent Trial Adjournment Requests in Writing

The Hamilton Law Association Bench & Bar Committee presented to the Judiciary a concern that counsel were no longer able to adjourn a Trial by filing the consent of all parties. Any adjournment request had to be spoken to. The directive below was approved by the Judiciary:

Counsel may adjourn trials from assignment court twice on consent; the 3rd adjournment requires attendance of counsel.

June 21, 2011